Dr. James C. Stam
President

During his first two years as President of Salem College, James C. Stam has captured the spirit and imagination of the College and the West Virginia community. In 1978 Dr. Stam took office as the Ninth President of the College and under his direction Salem has continued to grow as one of West Virginia's leading institutions of higher learning.

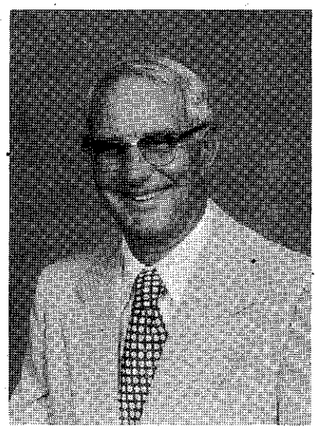
Among the milestones accomplished under Dr. Stam have been the re-accreditation of the College by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the introduction of graduate level degree programs, including the world's first master of arts in equestrian studies.

Dr. Stam has been an educator for twenty-two years, as a teacher and administrator. He is a graduate of Wheaton College, where he earned his BA and MA degrees and Stanford University, where he earned his Ph.D. Salem's first lady, Dr. Priscilla Fredrickson Stam, is also a graduate of Wheaton College, with the BA degree, and Stanford University, with the MA and Ph.D.

The faculty, students, staff and alumni of Salem College join President and Mrs. Stam in extending a sincere welcome to all who join us at Catalano Memorial Stadium and Salem College. The College has a rich and proud heritage and, throughout the years, on its playing fields, Salem teams have brought honor and distinction to their Alma Mater.

May your visit with us today be an enjoyable one. Have fun! Come back often to see us.

Clem Clower
Athletic Director



Salem is proud of its athletic heritage, and you fans, friends, alumni, and opponents have made a fine contribution to this heritage down through the years.

This season we wish to extend this proud heritage, and you can play a vital role: Applaud outstanding plays and performances; respect the fans seated in your immediate area; respect the officials, coaches, and players on both squads.

It is our desire to contribute to the growth of the players and students through a wholesome environment of athletic contests.

Thanks for your support. We trust we will see you at many of our athletic events.

Larry Blackstone
Head Football Coach

Larry Blackstone likes to win.

Larry Blackstone is a proud person.

Thus, Larry Blackstone likes to win with pride.

Entering his third season as head coach of the Tigers, Blackstone is pleased with the past accomplishments. It's not the 10-9-1 record over the past two years that brings a satisfying smile to his face. It is what has gone into those seasons and the players he has coached.

"I guess the biggest thing I am proud of as a head coach is that over 95 percent of my players are staying in school once they join our program," the 1968 Fairmont State All-American commented. "I like to win football games, and I want the players to like to win football games. But when the yelling and cheering is over, the kids are going to have to have the books to rely on for their future. This is something we have tried to stress, and I think we have made great strides."

During his collegiate days at his now inter-state rival Fairmont, Blackstone rose to collegiate accolades as the Falcons captured the NAIA Championship in 1967. He was a fullback and defensive end on that title squad, playing under legendary coach "Deacon" Duvall.

"I guess that is where I learned that football was more than a sport just played on the field," Blackstone said. "If you take all the things out of football, and apply them to other things in life, you will see that the same principals exist. There is more then just winning and losing involved. There is sportsmanship and character."

Blackstone returned to Salem in 1978 after previously serving as an assistant coach for the Tigers during their title years. Exercising his keen defensive prowess, he engineered the Salem defense that carried them to the NAIA Championship game in 1975 before the Tigers settled for a runner-up position behind powerful Texas A&I.

Blackstone has also coached in the high school system in West Virginia, and also served as an assistant for one year at West Virginia Wesleyan. He has also coached briefly in Ohio.

His coaching goals are simple: (1) work hard all the time; (2) give it everything you have; (3) the winning will take care of itself.

STEVE COATE
Offensive Coordinator

Steve Coate

Steve Coate, a Troy, Ohio native, will be the offensive coordinator in his second year at Salem. Coate is a graduate of Milton Union High School and Wittenburg University in Ohio. He coached seven years at Lima Senior High School in Lima, Ohio.

DAN ANTOLIK
Secondary

Dan Antolik

Dan Antolik enters his second year with the Tigers in charge of defensive backs. Antolik is a native of North Braddock, Pa., having graduated from North Braddock High School. He later graduated from Ft. Lewis College in Durango, Colorado. He has coached at New Mexico Highlands University, and also at his alma mater Mt. Lewis and Manos High School in Colorado.

DAN CAPPELLETTI
Lineman

Dan Cappelletti

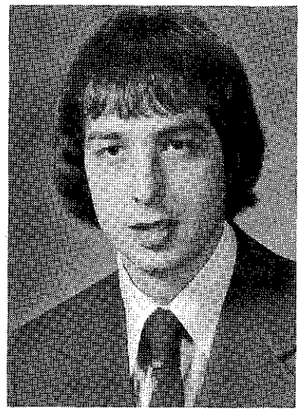
Dan Cappelletti will be coaching the Tigers for his third and will be in charge of the offensive line. Cappelletti was a member of the 1975 Salem College team that advanced to the NAIA Championship game. He graduated from Salem in 1976.

JEFF HOOVER
Receivers

Jeff Hoover

Jeff Hoover is the newest member of the Tiger coaching staff, and like Dan Cappelletti was a member of Salem's successful 1975 West Virginia Conference championship team. Hoover graduated in 1976, and will handle the wide receivers.

1980 Tiger Outlook



PERCY ASHCRAFT
Sports Information Director

The beginning of a decade opens the way for the Tigers to start a new slate. Anticipation of the upcoming season is hightened by a return of a number of lettermen, a good nucleus on both offense and defense.

Maturity will be the key to Tigers victories. The season's outcome will depend on how each player has grown physically and mentally. We worked extremely hard during the winter on our conditioning program and had tremendous gains by a number of players. In April we had 12 players Bench Press over 400 lbs. and 25 players power clean over 255 lbs.

We have a group of seniors who have suffered some with 4-6 and 6-3-1 seasons back to back, but have made many sacrifices and have worked real hard and are determined to end their careers by winning a Championship.

We are very optimistic.

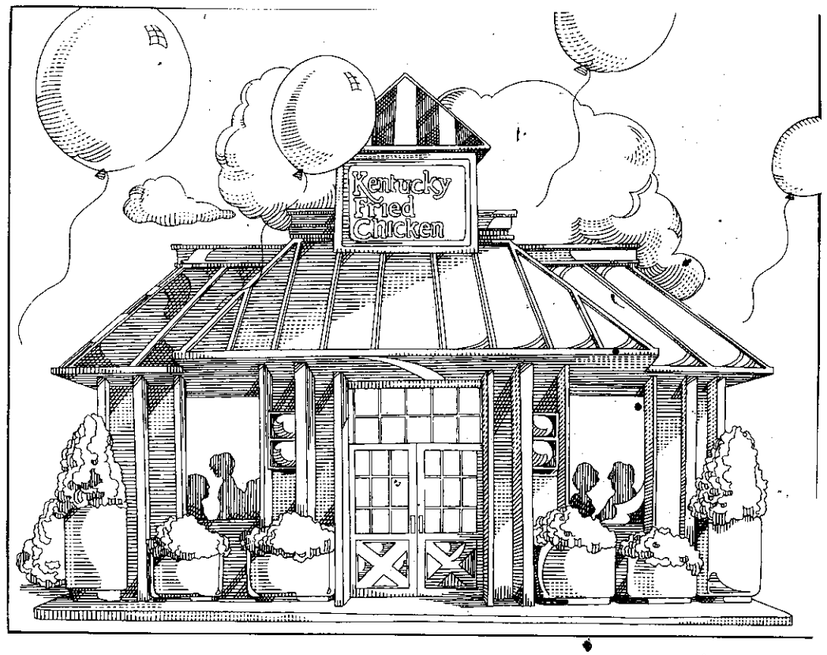
Good Luck Tigers!



Visit the Colonel before or after a game!

It's nice to feel so good about a meal.
